

MUMMIES: Secrets of the Pharaohs

What other teachers said:

Great look at the history of the mummies. Very relevant to year 12 Ancient history syllabus.
Eva Trevoav, Cabramatta HS

Clear and quite motivating...
Ray Arthur, Trinity Catholic College Auburn

Interesting for adults. Year 10-12 students.
Diane Fairweather, Chifley College Dunheved Campus

Highly Educational, especially on the part of the discoveries.
Marisa Cano, Liverpool TAFE

Scenery excellent along with authentic settings. Good sense of daily life at the time.
Jan Culison, Mercy Catholic College Chatswood

Great general interest, overview of the topic. Enough information to start further studies and hints of the huge body of information available for more detail.
Lesley Pennicook, East Hills Girls Technology High School

Really interesting. Great Visuals
Lyn Kirkby, Moriah College

Extremely good.
Brother Michael Jones, Berrie Education Centre Lewisham

Great for history.
Toula Mouzakis, Bonnyrigg High School

Beautifully presented.
Sheila Thompson, Eastwood Heights Public School

The Narrative was interesting and the cinematography captured the grand scale of Egyptian monuments which left one in amazement.
Ingrid Bifulco, Miller Technology High

The movie was well paced. Interesting facts. Well presented. Gave a sense of the civilisation.
Margaret Stone, Balmain Public School

LG IMAX Theatre Sydney - School Bookings

Ph: (02) 9213 1600 Fax: (02) 9281 3833 Email: education@imax.com.au

Visit our website for school session times and other resources: www.imax.com.au/schools

Great photography and effects. Very educational and interesting.
Rose Evans, The Athena School

I couldn't tell the difference between the reenactments and actual film footage. Great camera perspectives.
Chris Kemp, Carlingford West Public School

Different aspects of Egypt to the usual buildings of pyramids type film.
Doug Ogle, Castle Hill High

Excellent. It covered many different aspects of the topic and was very informative. It was fascinating to learn about the rituals associated with mummifications.
Margaret Ogle, William Rose School

Visually spectacular.
Carlo Hocusre, Kincoppal Rose Bay

Would be suitable for Senior High School Students. Years 9-12 inclusive.
A Furlaw, Saint Pius College Chatswood

Visually stunning. Made you feel like you has just taken a journey back in time.
Stephen Mc Kinley, Fairvale High School

I've been to Egypt to all those great sites. The big screen gives a wonderful view, without al the tourist coaches and souvenir tents. This was an enthralling film from start to finish.
Sheila Exton, Campbell Town Public School

This was really an excellent film. It would be fantastic for history classes or even science.
Paul Champion, Woolooware High

Fabulous film/. It's my second favorite after Shakelton.
Coralie Ford, Bass Hill Public School

A very descriptive documentary. Great as an introduction for students who are going to be studying Senior History.
Mirey Dagher, Saint Chabel's College

Succeeded in conveying a sense of place. Good mix of re-enactment of ancient ceremonies and producer with modern exploitation and research.
David Drury, Northmead High School

LG IMAX Theatre Sydney - School Bookings

Ph: (02) 9213 1600 Fax: (02) 9281 3833 Email: education@imax.com.au

Visit our website for school session times and other resources: www.imax.com.au/schools